PROGRAM

TIME	SESSION
8:00am – 8:45am	Registration
8.45am – 9.00am	Welcome and Overview – Terri Mottershead , Director, Centre for Legal Innovation (CLI)
9.00am – 10.00am	Opening Plenary Panel Discussion: Between AI and LegalTech, What's Really Left for Lawyers to Do? In a world of automated legal expertise and the multi-disciplinary legal practice, what's left for lawyers to do? The answer to this question and the solutions needed to make the leap from now to next are unlikely to be found within the legal profession alone. In this facilitated and lively opening plenary panel session, the panellists will challenge your assumptions about lawyer/legal work and share their experience, experiments and collaborations in future-proofing the legal workforce! Moderator: Warrick McLean, Chief Executive Officer, Coleman Greig Lawyers Panellists: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Nicola Atkinson, Research Fellow, CLI</li><li>• Marcus McCarthy, Principal, Nexus Law Group</li><li>• James Odell, Managing Director Australia and Asia Pacific, Elevate Services</li><li>• Caryn Sandler, Partner &amp; Chief Knowledge and Innovation Officer, Gilbert + Tobin</li></ul>
10.00am – 11.30am	Session A: AI and Legal Data Analytics – What's all the fuss about? So much data, so little time! But are there ways to use data that actually save you time? Are you spending too much time searching for data you already have? And, why does any of this matter to you in your legal practice? In this session, we discuss these critically important questions and much more! Moderator: Eric Chin, Strategy Consultant, Chin &amp; Co Panellists: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Jodie Baker, Founder and CEO, Xakia Technologies and Co-chair, CLI Advisory Board</li><li>• Matthew Golab, Head of Legal Informatics, Gilbert &amp; Tobin</li><li>• Dr. Ian Oppermann, NSW Chief Data Scientist</li><li>• Jo Wade, Executive Manager of Product and Platform APAC, Legal &amp; Professional, LexisNexis</li></ul>	Session B: So You Want to be an AI/ Legal Tech Start-Up – Here's what you need to know! With legal AI companies increasing by 65% in one year (LawGeex 2018), should law firms and legal departments be jumping on the bandwagon? Where do you start? Should you start? Is collaboration better than going it alone? How should you collaborate? What traps do you need to avoid? In this session, you will have the opportunity to spend time with legal start-up founders – people who have been there and done it. This session is not just about hearing their amazing stories but understanding them too - the highs and lows, the great and well, not so much! You will spend time, in small groups, with one of these innovators so you can do a deep dive into these questions and share your own experience too. Facilitator: David Bushby, Managing Director, Lexoo Australia Session table leaders: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Jarred Hardman, Founder, Crowd &amp; Co</li><li>• Claudia King, CEO and Founder, Automio, New Zealand</li><li>• Dom Woolrych, CEO, LawPath</li><li>• Demetrio Zema, Founder and Director, Law Squared</li></ul>
